NEET (P.G.) 2021 College Level Counselling for Stray Vacancy

Hon'ble Supreme Court in Writ Petition (s) (Civil) No(s). 267/2017 Dar-Us-Slam Educational Trust and ors versus Medical Council of India and ors. dated 09.05.2017 paragraph no. 7 has directed:

“In order to ascertain the number of seats that still remain vacant after the counselling the State Government or the authority designated by the State Government shall conduct manual counselling for allotment of students. After the completion counselling, the State Government shall determine the number of seats that are still vacant and thereafter shall forward a list of students in order of merit, equalling to ten times the number of vacant seats to the medical college so that in case of any stray vacancy arising in any college the said seat may be filled up from the saidlist.”

The Concerned Medical colleges shall inform the State Centralised Counselling Board about the number of vacant seats in their colleges based on which the list of seats available for stray vacancy will be uploaded on NEET counselling website. It is made clear that only such seats the vacancy of which has been informed to the State Centralised Counselling Board and notified by the counseling board shall be allowed to be filled by the concerned Medical colleges in the stray vacancy round, which shall be done strictly in accordance with paragraph no. 7 of Dar-Us-Slam Educational Trust case i.e. in accordance with the merit list sent by the State Centralised Counselling Board. No other seat shall be allowed to be filled by the colleges under any condition.

College level counselling of stray vacancy seats will be conducted strictly on merit basis by Principal/Admission authority of concerned Medical college Colleges. The colleges are required to strictly adhere to the directions given by Hon'ble Supreme Court in Writ Petition (s) (Civil) No(s). 267/2017 Dar-Us-Slam Educational Trust and ors versus Medical Council of India and ors.

The Principal/Admission authority of concerned Medical college Colleges shall ensure wide publicity of vacant seat(s), time schedule, venue and procedure of Counselling along with fee details. All details must be notified through official website of the college. Keeping in view, the last date of admission Colleges are advised to accept crossed cheques also for fee deposition along with demand draft and RTGS/NEFT.

The state merit cum waiting list for stray vacancy round based on eligibility and amount of security fee paid upto MOP UP roundis uploaded on NEET counseling website www.hnbumu.ac.in as separate link and marked as:-
