Sub: Counselling for admission in PG Courses in Medical Colleges – regarding

Sir/ Madam,

In continuation to this Ministry's letter of even number dated 11.05.2017 on the subject mentioned, I am directed to reproduce para-7 of the order of Hon'ble Supreme Court passed on 09.05.2017 in WP(C) No. 267/2017 in the matter of DAR-US-Slam Educational Trust V/s Medical Council of India:

"In order to ascertain the number of seats that still remain vacant after the counselling the State Government or the authority designated by the State Government shall conduct manual counselling for allotment of students. After the completion counselling, the State Government shall determine the number of seats that are still vacant and thereafter shall forward a list of students in order of merit, equalling to ten times the number of vacant seats to the medical college so that in case of any stray vacancy arising in any college the said seat may be filled up from the said list."

2. In view of the above, all the State/UT Governments are requested to conduct mop-up round of counselling first. After the completion of mop-up counselling, the number of seats that are still vacant may be determined and list of students in order of merit, equalling to ten times the number of vacant seats shall then be forwarded to the medical colleges concerned. In any case, last date of admission i.e. 31.05.2017 will remain unchanged.

Yours sincerely,

(D.V. K. Rao)

Under Secretary to the Government of India
