NOTE:

1. There will be no more counselling as it is the final Mop-up round of counselling. No more seat allotment will be done by the Counselling Board after this Mop-up round of counselling i.e. 29th May 2017.
2. Seat upgradation facility will not be available after the above mop-up round by the Counselling Board. Candidates who have been allotted seats in first, second and mop-up round will not be eligible for consideration in the waiting list and hence their name will not be forwarded to colleges for consideration for admission in vacant seats.
3. Seat matrix shown for mop-up round is related to filled and/or allotted seats after second round of Counselling. Since the exact number and branch of seat will be available only after 27th May, 2017; the candidates are once again advised to fill the best
4. choices as per their preference as seats shown allotted or filled may get vacated due to upgradation or seat conversion or non confirmation of admission at the allotted college upto 27th May , 2017. The vacated seats will be allotted as per merit and choice filled.
5. Keeping in view, the shortage of time between allotment of seat and confirmation of admission, candidates are advised to make necessary arrangement for travel and payment of fee, required documents and other admission formalities. University and Counselling Board will not be responsible for any delay on the part of the candidate in securing admission.
6. All other terms and conditions will remain same as per “Instructions for NEET PG-2017 Uttarakhand State Mop-up Round of Online Centralised Counselling” uploaded in the university website.
7. The counselling board reserves the right to modify the above schedule or any terms and condtions.
